- (4) Our long-term goal is extending the corridor westward, forming a linkage of habitat from Byron Bay and surrounds out to Repentance Creek, allowing Koalas to move more safely across the local landscape.
- (5) The association is working together with private landholders, the Bangalow Landcare and River-care Group, the Byron Shire Council and the Lismore City Council to achieve this community-driven habitat corridor outcome.
- (6) Funding for community working bees and qualified bush regeneration workers will be drawn from council allocated funds, the association’s fundraising efforts, or grants or sponsorship awarded to the association.
- (7) The association does not endorse any venture, commercial or otherwise, purporting to implement the objectives of the association unless the association provides its specific endorsement by a duly authorised resolution of the association or its Executive Committee.
